

It is all about passion and personality!

Kilsgaard Eyewear is a Danish design eyewear brand with an international perspective. Their frames are a modern and urban tribute to Danish design classics created with passion for simplicity and elegance.

At Kilsgaard Eyewear they do not follow trends and dogmas to be hip or fashionable. They stay grounded in simply elegant design which never goes out of style. Their latest collection stays true to their vision and consists of beautiful eyewear that will enhance the personal style of the wearer and not create it.

“Creating designer eyewear is about passion, personality and style. We are extremely proud of the fine detailing and expressive coloration of the newest collection. It truly builds on our passion for creating long-lasting evergreens” says Charlotte Ellegaard, Head of Marketing at Kilsgaard Eyewear.

The Kilsgaard styles 2017

The new styles are minimalistic and clean, yet unique and elegant. The shapes range from timeless, classic masculine to feminine vintage-inspired ones.

Model 96, 1/26 black

Model 96 is an aluminum frame with a delicate matt finish that enhances the designs minimalistic and cool look. The accuracy of the aluminum beautifully defines the frames angles and creates a classy and sophisticated feminine silhouette.

Press release

November 2017

Conrad, Gold

Conrad is a titanium frame that was inspired by the iconic frame shapes of the 1920's and 1930's. The temple is shaped with reference to great Danish furniture design traditions, simplified to a rigorous and modern look with no superfluous details – Just being so very elegant and sophisticated.
