

THE EU – A HAVEN FOR ♀ HUMAN RIGHTS OR A HUB FOR NATIONALISTS?

Welcome to an engaging discussion with EU Parliament candidates and women human rights defenders from the Balkan countries on the future of the EU.

EU elections are approaching, in a time when the union is faced with unseen challenges. Brexit shakes its foundations and the Parliament is used to consolidate the nationalist and populist movements.

At the same time, can the EU continue to be an ally for women human rights defenders in the Balkans for gender equality and a more just society?

WHEN: Friday 22 February at 9:00–10:00.

COFFEE & SANDWICH:
Served from 8:30.

WHERE: Europahuset,
Regeringsgatan 65, Stockholm
