Trenitalia will meet expert solution providers at the 7th International Railway Summit

For Immediate Release

Trenitalia, the main rail passenger and freight operator in Italy, and one of the leading carriers in Europe, will participate at the 7th International Railway Summit in Frankfurt taking place on 20-22 February 2019.

A subsidiary of the Ferrovie dello Stato Group (Italian State Railways), Trenitalia runs over 7,000 trains per day, providing regional and long distance services throughout the country, including high-speed services, via the Frecciarossa, Frecciargento and Frecciabianca brands, on more than 1,000km of high speed line.

In recent years the company has developed its international businesses, operating night services along the Paris – Milan – Venice and Paris – Milan – Rome routes with Thello (a Trenitalia subsidiary) in France, and freight services with TX Logistik guaranteeing connections in Germany and services throughout Europe through branches in Austria, Switzerland, and Sweden. As part of First Trenitalia West Coast, a partnership with First Group, the company is also participating in tenders in the United Kingdom.

Maurizio Capotorto, Director of Foreign Subsidiaries Direction, will represent Trenitalia at the summit. Mr Capotorto is also a member of the TSI (Technical Specifications for Interoperability) Working Groups at the European Union Agency for Railways (EUAR), and the Community of European Railway and Infrastructure Companies (CER).

Mr Capotorto will take part in pre-arranged consultation meetings with expert solution providers, and attend a variety of networking functions throughout the three-day event.
