HIMA present smart safety solutions as Silver Sponsors of 7th International Railway Summit

For Immediate Release

HIMA, provider of smart safety automation solutions for industrial applications, will take part as Silver Sponsor of the 7th International Railway Summit in Frankfurt on 20-22 February 2019.

Headquartered in Germany, with offices across the globe, HIMA develops customised solutions that help increase safety, bolster cyber security, and improve the profitability of plants and factories in the digital age. More than 35,000 of the company's TÜV-certified safety systems have been installed worldwide. For over 45 years, HIMA has been a partner to some of the world's largest oil, gas, chemical, and energy-producing companies. In the global rail industry, HIMA's CENELEC-certified SIL4 COTS safety controllers are leading the way to increased safety, security and profitability.

On Thursday 21 February, during the 7th International Railway Summit's conference programme, Dr Alexander Horch, Vice President, Research, Development and Product Management at HIMA, will deliver a technical review entitled 'Functional Safety in a Connected World', exploring how digital transformation may impact on functional safety systems, including in the realm of regulation.

Senior representatives of HIMA will also take part in pre-arranged one-to-one meetings with buyer companies throughout the summit. Sedat Sezgün, Group Vice President Business Segment Rail, Guillaume Grasset, Business Development Manager Rail Europe & Africa, will join Dr Horch in offering bespoke consultation for buyers' project requirements.

Organisations and individuals interested in learning more about the 7th International Railway Summit and about how they can participate in the event can visit www.irits.org or contact the organisers, IRITS Events.
