

Bruno Cattan joins Eutelsat as Terminals and Systems Director

Paris, 19 September 2016 - Eutelsat Communications (NYSE Euronext Paris: ETL) announces the appointment of Bruno Cattan as head of its newly-created Terminals and Systems Division in the company's Technical Department.

The division will drive the development and industrialisation of new products and services for the video market and take the leading role in the design of ground infrastructure for future High Throughput Satellite systems, including competitively-priced user terminals.

Bruno brings to Eutelsat his vast expertise as a technical director in media and telecom innovation. He joins Eutelsat from Canal+ Overseas where he managed the technical and digital teams in Paris and coordinated teams in subsidiaries in Africa, Asia and French overseas territories.

He began his career in the mobile industry at Motorola and Nokia and is a graduate of France's Ecole Polytechnique and Telecom ParisTech.
